

The Ascension of our Lord

The fortieth day after Easter Sunday, the Church commemorates the Ascension of Christ into heaven, according to Mark, Luke and Acts. In the liturgies generally the day is meant to celebrate the completion of the work of our salvation, the pledge of our glorification with Christ, and His entry into heaven with our human nature glorified. In the Nicene Creed we confess that, on the fortieth day after his resurrection from the dead, our Lord ascended into heaven with the same body and sat at the right hand of the Father. With this same body “he is to come judge the living and the dead, his kingdom shall have no end”. The feast of the ascension brings to a close the forty-day period after Easter celebration. The message of the feast is that although Jesus is no longer physically present, he is enthroned in heaven as the king of peace and will return to judge the world. The gospel lesson appointed for this day is called the “great commission” because here Jesus entrusts his apostles to the important task of preaching the gospel to the whole world, teaching and baptizing in the name of the Holy Trinity. He also assures them and us that he will not leave us alone in our sacred duty to spread the good news.

ASCENSIONE DEL SIGNORE

1 Giugno 2025

GESU` E` SALITO AL CIELO

Quando una persona amata scompare, ci lascia nella desolazione. L'esistenza sembra perdere ogni senso. Ma a volte capita che uno strano sentimento si risvegli: la certezza di una nuova presenza della persona assente. Ci si ricorda del passato e si comprendono atteggiamenti, espressioni che sembravano allora misteriosi e si vuole continuare in qualche modo la sua opera.

Dopo l'Ascensione, Gesù ha lasciato gli apostoli, ma all'improvviso Egli è presente, più reale che mai. Scompare ai loro occhi ma essi entrano in un ordine di realtà fino allora insospettata. Possono partire per il mondo e annunciare la Buona Novella: in Gesù, presente con noi fino alla fine dei tempi, si attua il Regno. Dio è con noi per sempre.
