Praise in the Parking Lot

"Praise in the Parking Lot" an afternoon of family fun, food, fantastic musical entertainment, good fellowship and children's fun filled activities all in support of an opportunity to support some of Niagara's students in need is a recipe of hope served up by Fonthill's GLOW GROUP. The letters GLOW stand for "Go Light Our World". It was started by Danica Bucci and Debbie Pine as a care and outreach mission to support local and international charities and organizations. Danica and Debbie along with a group of parishioners from St. Alexander parish in Fonthill are putting together a mini fundraiser/awareness event on the church property on Sunday, August 25 from 1:00 to 5:00 pm in support of the Niagara Foundation for Catholic Education. The performers for the live music Danica Bucci and Ray Lyell are two accomplished singer/songwriters from the Niagara Region, and both have had success in working with well known musical individuals not only in Canada but in the International music world. Further information, contact Danica Bucci at (905) 931-6520.
